Darker Picture

A substantial amount of unemployment, in the midst of plenty, continues to be a national problem. According to the authorities, a prime reason is that large numbers of people simply lack the skills that are in heavy demand.

At the same time, there is grave concern that young people, particularly high school graduates who want to accumulate a little nest egg to take to college with them in the fall, will have a tough time finding seasonal employment. Leaders in government, business and education have been doing a great deal of talking about this and have strongly urged the creation of "local" committees to line up jobs and fit them to the applicants. The situation being what it is, it's hard to see how currently proposed labor legislation can do anything but make matters worse. Killing right-to-work laws and imposing more costly overtime requirements would certainly stand in the way of expanded employment. Higher overtime rates will not enable unskilled workers to perform skilled jobs.

That is also true of the proposal to extend minimum wage coverage to workers now exempt. Most of them are in the service industries. Those covered would be those with minimum skills. So, if an employer had to pay higher wages for them, he'd have little choice but to pare this kind of marginal employment to the limit. The point is that arbitrary laws, which give little or no consideration to worker productivity and value, must darken, not brighten, the employment picture. — Logan (W.Va.) Banner

Slight Error

What did we tell you about the accuracy of polls? The Census Bureau (of all people) did a mammoth sampling pool of people who voted last November 3. Sixty-nine per cent of the voting age population said they cast a ballot — they absolutely did. That would mean a total voting turnout of 76.6 million. But, according to the official count, only 70.6 million votes were cast. Feed that one to Univac. — Asheville (N.C.) Citizen

What is Prejudicial?

The American Bar Association has given its annual prize this year for an essay by an attorney who objected to "excessive and prejudicial" publicity about the background of LEE HARVEY OSWALD after he had assassinated President KENNEDY. Had the attorney lived a hundred years earlier, he might have objected, too, to the press referring to JOHN WILKES BOOTH as an actor. — Memphis (Tenn.) Commercial Appeal

"What's That?"

A public relations firm has sent out a release which begins: "A U.S. soldier coming home from a year in Viet Nam was greeted at New York's Kennedy International Airport with what he had been dreaming about for a year — a good cheeseburger." — Anderson (S.C.) Independent

Bathing Caps For Long Haired

BAVIA, N.Y. (AP) — A rule that girls must wear bathing caps in the municipal pool has been extended to boys with long hair. Officials said they decided to expand the rule after noticing an increasing number of boys were allowing their hair to grow long. They said accumulation of hair in the water clogs the pool filtering system.

Army Leader Controls Argentina

By ISAAC A. LEVI
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Lt. Gen. Juan Carlos Onganía, a former army chief, is to be sworn in today as head of a new military regime which hopes to win over some of the Argentine masses still loyal to Juan D. Peron.

Onganía, 52, was picked by a three-man military junta made up of the present commanders of the army, navy and air force. They took control Tuesday after the army overthrew the civilian government of President Arturo Illia in a bloodless overnight coup.

The military gave no indication how long it intends to remain in power. Veteran observers predicted it will be several years before it permits election of another civilian regime.

The military, which overthrew Peron and sent him into exile in 1955, is determined to prevent the Peronists from returning to power. Its chief grievance against Illia was his failure to reduce the strength of Peron's followers, who won control of three of Argentina's 22 provinces in recent elections and probably would have won Buenos Aires Province in elections next March.

The junta said it plans sweeping economic, political and social reforms aimed at wooing Argentines away from Peronism. An estimated 20 to 30 per cent of Argentina's 12 million voters still recall with longing the benefits Peron gave them during his nine-year dictatorship.

Fire Guts Ft. Smith Plant

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Fire destroyed the Crain Sales Co. here Monday, the third fire at the plant within the last year. No one was injured and no estimate of damage to the polyfoam products fabrication plant was given.

The firm had one building destroyed by fire last year. Monday's fire destroyed a temporary building housing the firm.

Ministers Meet Called

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson has called a Commonwealth prime ministers' conference for Sept. 6-15 to discuss tightening the economic sanctions against the rebel white minority regime in Rhodesia, officials reported Monday night.

The conference originally had been scheduled for July but Wilson postponed it hoping to reach a settlement with Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith.

In five weeks of talks, Rhodesian officials have failed to bow to British demands that the country's 4 million black Africans be given an increasing voice in the government and that Rhodesia repeal its racial segregation laws. There are 250,000 whites in Rhodesia.

Despite the lack of progress, the British Cabinet decided Monday to continue the talks.

French Plan Nuclear Test

PAPEETE, Tahiti (AP) — France plans to hold the first in its series of nuclear tests in the Pacific on Thursday if the weather permits. Otherwise the test will be held as soon as possible after Thursday. Overseas Minister Pierre Billotte said Monday.

Billotte returns to Papeete from a tour of French Polynesian islands to inaugurate the city's new port Wednesday. The port was developed partly because of the nuclear test site centered on the island of Muroa.

Sources in Paris said the initial test will include two atomic bombs of less than 100 kiloton power. Another series has been scheduled for August and a test involving hydrogen bomb elements for September, the sources said.

Phone Loan for Toll Centers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Allied Telephone Co. of Little Rock will receive an $820,000 loan to establish toll centers at the Glenwood and Greenbrier exchanges and for the construction of new lines. Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said Monday.

Insurance Rate Hike Rescinded

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Insurance Commissioner Harvey Combs, after a brief public hearing, today rescinded a 21.2 per cent increase in automobile liability insurance rates. Combs ordered insurance companies to submit a new application when figures are available to show how the companies fared in 1965.

He told the firms to file rate schedules, effective July 1, restoring the rates that were in effect before the June 1 increases.

The action came after Gov. Orval Faubus pledged at the start of the hearing to prove, with the companies' own figures, that the increase was not justified.

Combs ended the hearing 50 minutes after it started when he asked the companies to furnish 1965 experience figures and the companies said this could not be done until later in the year.

Petitions Ask Camp Re-Open

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Petitions are being circulated in Fort Smith and 11 nearby towns asking the re-opening of Ft. Chaffee.

Edward Smoot said the signatures of 10,000 registered voters were being sought. He said the petitions would be sent to Rep. James Trimble, D-Ark., and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Ft. Chaffee was closed last June, but Smoot said the Viet Nam War had forced other 4th Army installations to construct barracks to take care of overcrowding.

RFK Controls Democrats in New York

By TOM POSTER

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy emerged today as undisputed leader of New York's Democratic party, strengthened by a smashing victory over once-powerful Tammany Hall in a normal obscure primary judgeship race.

Kennedy's hand-picked candidate for judge of the Surrogate (Probate) Court — Samuel J. Silverman — defeated the regular Manhattan organization candidate, Arthur Klein, in an open test of Kennedy's political strength. Both Silverman and Klein now are New York Supreme Court justices.

The race was the highlight of New York's primary elections, which also saw a Goldwater Republican defeat a candidate endorsed by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, and an opponent of President Johnson's Viet Nam policy upset a veteran congressman.

On suburban Long Island, Steven Derouin, who lost his congressional seat when he backed Barry Goldwater in the Johnson landslide of 1964, won the Republican nomination over GOP moderate William J. Casey.

From Washington, Goldwater said in a statement that Derouin's victory "was just one more convincing proof of the main stream of the Republican party is, as it always has been, common sense conservatism."

Low Flying Plane Kills 14-Year-Old

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Jimmie Dwayne Sims, 14, was killed Tuesday when a low-flying airplane hit him as he was guiding the pilot during a seeding operation.

Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Sims Jr. of Texarkana, was hit by a wheel of a crop-dusting plane at the Lollipop Ranch on Arkansas 134 near Fouke, 15 miles south of here.

The victim was lining up at the end of a row to show the pilot Chris Myrick of Corpus Christi, Tex., which row needed to be seeded. Myrick, who was later treated for shock, crashed the plane on the dirt runway at the ranch because the wheel was damaged, authorities said.

Surveyor 1 Succumbs to Deep Freeze

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — America's camera on the moon, Surveyor 1, failed Tuesday night to respond to initial commands sent to reactivate it after the super-cold lunar night — two weeks at temperatures as low as 280 degrees below zero.

Said a spokesman at Jet Propulsion Laboratory, which sent the commands: "This was not totally expected. We hoped it would work."

The 620-pound spacecraft which began sending pictures June 1 after a soft landing on the moon, transmitted more than 10,000 pictures before it was engulfed in the lunar night June 14.

JPL, through its Goldstone, Calif., transmitter, attempted to stir Surveyor again for 3 1/2 hours beginning at 6 p.m., approximately 5 1/2 hours before the lunar sunrise.

The JPL spokesman said further transmissions would be sent Wednesday and Thursday night, and, if unsuccessful, another attempt would be made July 7 when the craft's solar panels face the sun at lunar noon.

Three reasons were given why initial attempts to revive Surveyor failed: The craft's batteries could be completely dead; since it was still lunar night, it was too cold for Surveyor to answer; or the extreme cold disrupted the contact frequencies.

Planes Blast Fuel Dumps Near Hanoi

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Air Force and Navy jets brought the air war closer than ever to North Viet Nam's capital and major port today, bombing major fuel depots three miles from the center of Hanoi and in the dock area of Haiphong.

The pilots reported the raids were "highly successful" with both storage areas in flames. Smoke rose 35,000 feet from the complex of fuel tanks near Hanoi and 20,000 feet from the Haiphong tanks, a U.S. spokesman said.

The Hanoi target "was covered like a blanket," he reported.

The U.S. Command said no planes were lost in either strike, but Radio Hanoi claimed four were shot down near Hanoi and three in the Haiphong area. The broadcast said several U.S. pilots were captured.

The air offensive in the Communist north, now in its 16th month, completely dominated the U.S. Command's daily war report.

In South Viet Nam, where thousands of U.S. troops are in the field searching for the Communists, "only very light and scattered, minor contacts" were reported.

On the political front, the threat of a Buddhist boycott of South Viet Nam's September elections diminished as more monks rallied behind the conciliatory policy espoused by the moderate chairman of the Buddhist Institute.

The growing support in the Buddhist hierarchy for Thich Tam Chau left his militant rival, Thich Tri Quang, increasingly isolated, but Quang showed no signs of abandoning his hunger strike.

Six flights of Air Force F105s sent to reactivate it after the super-cold lunar night — two weeks at temperatures as low as 280 degrees below zero. Said a spokesman at Jet Propulsion Laboratory, which sent the commands: "This was not totally expected. We hoped it would work."

Although the committee planned to meet again today, final action will be delayed until after Congress returns from a July 4 recess in two weeks.

"It's better to have a good bill than to rush one through," said the committee chairman, Rep. Harley O. Staggers, D-W.Va.

Staggers admitted that White House officials had contacted his office to indicate their interest in swift action.

In one important vote, the committee rejected by a substantial majority a proposal offered by Rep. Glenn C. Cunningham, R-Neb., and supported by the auto industry to take away from the secretary of commerce the major role in setting new car safety standards.

Cunningham's proposal would have shifted much of the power to the Vehicle Equipment Safety Commission, a 44-state compact which has been denounced by some safety proponents as dominated by the auto industry.

Then the committee voted to accept a Senate provision providing for consultation between the secretary and the safety commission of new car standards "as he deems appropriate." But it took out a provision which said the consultation would have to include an opportunity for the commission to study and comment on proposed standards.

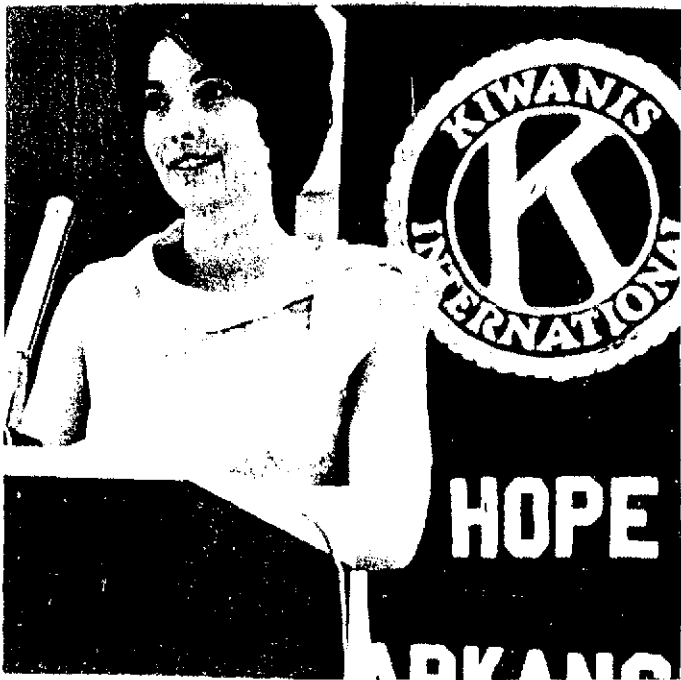

Pending amendments before the committee would write into the House version the Senate standards.

The program will continue 9 weeks and will provide baby-sitting facilities at the park while mother and dad swim; personnel to teach women swimming classes; as well as supervision of tennis, softball, pee-pee baseball, volleyball, and many other games.

Would Open All Public Records

CHEROKEE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP)—Open meetings of state agencies and open public records should be emphasized and present laws governing them should be strictly observed, a candidate for lieutenant governor said Monday.

Joe Basore of Cherokee Village said he was opposed in principle to secrecy in government, "no matter whether it be on the local, state or national level."

"I feel the next General Assembly will take action to clarify and strengthen the state law on official meetings and records," Basore said.

more easily on the House floor than a bill that exempted some forms of housing.

From the pattern of voting in the committee Tuesday it appeared that was the strategy guiding some opponents of the measure. The meeting was closed and no votes were made public. But it was reported by some in attendance that Southern Democrats and conservative Republicans joined liberals in opposing amendments that would have softened the provision.

The housing provision is part of an omnibus bill whose other sections deal with selection of state and federal jurors, school desegregation and protecting Negroes' rights. The other sections already have been approved by the committee and are expected to encounter little opposition on the House floor outside of that from Southerners.

No Southerners on the committee would comment publicly on their positions, but many are known to be looking forward to seeing Northern House members have to vote on the record House that in such a vote the law. It is widely believed in the for or against an open housing proposal would be defeated.

Early in the session the committee defeated, 17 to 15, a motion to kill the housing provision. Some five hours later a motion to approve it was defeated 25 to 6. In between a whole series of amendments to exempt certain kinds of housing were beaten — mostly by margins of two or three votes.

The committee also rejected an amendment that would have scrapped the section and called on President Johnson to issue an executive order against racial discrimination in housing.

Grant, Child to Visit His Mom

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — Actor Cary Grant and his wife, Dyan, sailed for England Monday night to give his 89-year-old mother a visit with her first grandchild.

Wife's Choice Ended Marriage

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — His wife's choice of a house guest helped break up his marriage about two weeks after the wedding date, a petitioner related in a divorce suit.

The petitioner said he and his wife were married March 17 and separated about April 1.

"Briefly after the marriage," he related in the petition, his wife "invited into the home an old boy friend to stay and live in the home."

Elephant Kills Child, 3, at Zoo

MADISON, Wis. (AP) Nine-year-old Michael Sharpe heard a mother scream.

A 3-year-old girl with her bag of popcorn had slipped under the gate near the elephant cage at the Henry Vilas Park Zoo Tuesday.

Winkie, a 3½ ton import from India, snaked her trunk out through the bars and curled it around the child.

"I didn't know what to do," Michael said. "Winkie just grabbed her and started pulling her in. She was trumpeting and the girl's mother was screaming. I don't know what was wrong with Winkie. I never saw her that way."

The girl was Ruth Ellen Freedman, the daughter of Prof. Ralph Freedman of Princeton University.

Before anyone could reach her, the elephant smashed the child against the bars of the cage, dropped her, picked her up again, drew her inside the cage and let her fall unconscious to the concrete floor.

After Mrs. Freedman screamed, she and her husband dashed to a gate and entered in an attempt to rescue the child but by then the elephant had pulled her through the bars.

Ruth Ellen was dead on arrival at the hospital.

Dane County Coroner Clyde Chamberlain said the fatal injury probably was inflicted by the elephant's feet after the child was inside the cage.

"She was more or less trampled," he said.

Ruth Ellen had come to Madison a few days ago with her parents.

Freedman, a prominent scholar and writer, was spending the summer at the University of Wisconsin as a visiting lecturer.

The university is not far from the city zoo where Winkie, the only elephant, has been the star attraction for children since her arrival almost 20 years ago.

Zoo Director Alvin Nelson considered the 23-year-old animal docile. "We've had no problems with her," he said.

Children fearlessly fed her peanuts and popcorn.

Ruth Ellen took her bag of popcorn with her under the cyclone fence.

The barrier was supposed to keep zoo visitors at a safe distance from the cages. "It's a perfectly safe enclosure," said Nelson, "except if people want to get in, you can't keep them out."

The first person to reach the child was Melvin Bollig, the caretaker. He was in the nearby lion house.

"I heard screaming and I rushed to the cage. I saw the child lying on the concrete. The elephant walked away the moment I walked in the cage. She acted as if she knew she had done something wrong."

The coroner said he didn't know what would become of the animal.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

Mrs. William Frank Walters

Miss Patricia Ann Peters, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Peters of Malvern, and Lt. William Frank Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frank Walters of Hope, were married Saturday June 25 in the First Methodist church in Malvern. Rev. Merle A. Johnston officiated assisted by Rev. Lloyd M. Conyers.

Rob Wilson of Malvern, and Douglas Peters of Dallas were candlelighters.

Mrs. C. J. Baker, organist, provided a program of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Daniel Lee, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in a sheath dress with a detachable chapel train of white peau de sole accented with Alencon lace embroidered in seed pearls. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a rounded neckline and long fitted sleeves which tapered to lilly points.

She wore a elbow length veil of illusion attached to a Queen Ann cap of the matching lace and fabric roses. Her bouquet was a cascade of white garden-ias, stephanotis and baby ivy.

Miss Mary Everett, Malvern, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Maxine Harlath, Houston, Tex.; Miss Julie Wright, Mountain Home; and Miss Linda Del Vecchio, Bethesda, Md.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Jan Peters, sister of the bride, and Miss Ann Walters, niece of the bridegroom, of Houston Tex.

Jim McLarty of Hope served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Douglas Peters, Dallas, Tex.; Rob Wilson, Malvern; and David Marsh, Little Rock.

A reception followed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Banks.

Following their honeymoon trip through the mid-western states, the couple will reside in New Richmond, Wisc., where the bridegroom is a lieutenant in the Army and the bride will attend Wisconsin State University.

the June 14 primary which eliminated several white candidates. However, all the white voters apparently rallied behind the white candidates for the runoff.

In Clarendon County, a Negro minister, the Rev. J.S. Hunter, lost his bid for nomination to the county's lone seat in the state House of Representatives. He said he would file a protest involving ballots cast in two precincts in Summerton.

Final tabulations gave the Rev. Mr. Hunter 3,665 votes to 3,878 votes for his white opponent, Joseph Coker.

All Negro Candidates Defeated

By AL LANCER
COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) White voters apparently cast their ballots solidly along racial lines to defeat four Negro candidates who had been given a good chance to win Democratic nominations to the all-white South Carolina Legislature.

Voting in adjoining Williamsburg and Clarendon counties followed racial lines closely. Vote totals in the runoff primary Tuesday indicated almost all eligible voters, Negro and white, cast ballots.

Both Negroes and whites had claimed a slight edge in voting registrations in the two central South Carolina counties. The four Negro candidates had led the legislative races in

HELEN HELP US!

Pictures Don't Tell The Whole Story
Dear Helen: It actually happened, and I'm sending you the newspaper article to prove it. Two young girls accused a middle-aged man of molesting them. Although he admitted it, to get him a lighter sentence, his lawyer brought in two Ph. D. college professors who are reputedly experts on diagnosing mental troubles from art work of the patients.

Without even seeing or talking to the girls, the men looked at some pencil sketches they did and declared they had deep subconscious guilt complexes—which would indicate they might be unreliable witnesses.

One of the sketches appeared in our paper. It looks like an amateurish copy of a teenage cartoon. One of the doctors went on to say that if a door-knob is left off the door in a sketch, it means perhaps the absence of a n umbilical cord, which indicates "mother rejection." They said "shading" a picture means "evasion."

Now really! Isn't psychiatry going to far when it condemns people without even a hearing? — Shocked

Dear Shocked: In my humble opinion, yes; but then I'm not a psychiatrist. Art work, ink blots tests, etc., are often studied to round out the psychiatric examination of a patient, and they are most helpful here. But to base a diagnosis on drawings alone, (without even seeing the "artist") is like telling me I have deep-seated hostility because I eat peanut butter sandwiches for breakfast.

One of our kids drew monsters, nothing but monsters, and shaded ones at that, for six months. Ph.D.'s might have made much of this, but a mother knew better.

I still can't believe it, even though I read it! That news-me wonder if Big Brother isn't closer than we think. — H.

Husband Wants To Ban The Band

Dear Helen: My husband and I have only been married a short while. I gave him a $500 wedding band which he refuses to wear. He says it gets in the way when he works or bolts, and it's too big so it bothers him. He's afraid he may lose it.

But I think he won't wear it because he wants to appear single. Women look at a man's left hand to see whether he's taken. And my husband likes to flirt.

I have refused to wear my rings until he does. No luck. What can I do? — Frustrated Wife

Dear Wife: The presence of a band on your husband's finger won't keep him from "beating the band" if he's a high stepper. The absence of a ring won't make him stray if he loves you, as I'm sure he does.

Moreover, if he were trying to pull as fast, he'd start out wearing the ring and slip it in his pocket on the bus. Instead, he's honest, so believe him!

Why not consider selling the band and buying something you will both appreciate, together with a smaller, much cheaper ring that he will wear? — H.

Terrell Wins Decision Over Jones

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Writer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Ernie

Terrell of Chicago, the towering

World Boxing Association

champion who could give away two rounds on low blows and still win a lopsided decision over dogged New Yorker Doug

Jones, may announce today the next defense of his title.

There were indications it might be Cleveland Williams, the Houston heavyweight on the comeback trail after a serious wound from a highway patrol-man's gun.

Williams appeared on the card Tuesday night when Terrell won a unanimous 15-round decision over Jones before 9,346 fans who paid $102,165. Cleveland preceded to beat up Tod

Herring of Houston so badly he got a technical knockout early in the third round.

Benbow, already has offered

$50,000 to Terrell to fight his boy. Terrell also has a $75,000 offer to fight Canadian George

Chuvale, the man he defended his title against the first time last November.

Kansas City Ambushes the Leaders

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Everything's upside down in Kansas City. . . and the amazing Athletics never had it so good.

The A's, perennial American League tailenders under a succession of frustrated manag-

under new pilot Alvin Dark

Tuesday night by ambushing first-place Baltimore 4-3.

The victory, fifth for the A's in their last six starts, gave them a shot at overtaking the

New York Yankees in the standings for the first time since Charley Finley was a tot. They are eighth, nine games below the .500 mark but only one-half length short of the Yankees, who lost to last-place Boston 5-3

Tuesday night.

While Kansas City fans have been struggling to keep pace with the comings and goings of their heroes — result of a steady stream of trades — Dark has had his patch-work club on the move. After losing 15 of their first 20 games, the A's have gone 30-29 since May 8.

Ten KC players have departed since spring training — including 1965 favorites John Wyatt,

Wayne Causey and Ken Harrelson — but Dark is getting mil-age out of newcomers Danny

Cater (White Sox), Roger Repoz

(Yankees) and Jim Gosger

(Red Sox).

Cater and Gosger each doubled in a run against the Orioles

Tuesday night while rookie

Chuck Dobson and relievers

Ken Sanders and Jack Aker checked the league leaders on six hits.

Detroit clobbered California

15-3, Minnesota blanked Cleveland 4-0 and Washington beat

Chicago 4-1 in other AL games.

In National League play, Philadelphia nipped New York 1-0,

Pittsburgh edged Houston 4-3,

Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles

3-1, San Francisco trimmed St.

Louis 7-1 and Atlanta topped

Chicago 4-2.

The Athletics snapped Baltimore's three-game winning streak by grabbing a 4-1 lead and then holding off the Orioles.

Bert Campaneris singled in the first inning off loser Jim Palmer and doubles by Cater and Gosger produced two runs.

Home runs by George Thomas and Mik Ryan, coupled with five Yankee errors, helped the Red Sox down New York behind the six-hit pitching of Jose Sar-tiano, who survived two home runs by Mickey Mantle.

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) —

William L. McGee, Portland, port his $25 ladder was stolen.

downtown police station.

Mays Homers in Giants Victory

While dreams of a no-hitter danced in Bobby Bolin's head,

Jim Ray art two-stepped his way into the San Francisco

Giants' dugout chasing a pop foul. After that, the no-hit jig was up for Bolin.

Bolin, the strong-armed right-hander who has been something of a disappointment this year had set the St. Louis Cardinals down without a hit over 6 1-3 innings Tuesday night.

Then ex-Giant Orlando Cepeda

lofted a foul fly off third.

Hart drifted over and caught the ball. But the umpires ruled the third baseman was in the dugout when he made the grab and nullified the apparent out.

That gave Cepeda another swing and the slugging first baseman skinned Bolin's no-hit bit with a single. Bolin surrendered only one other hit en route to a 7-1 victory.

The Giants, who won their 13th game in the last 17, backed

Bolin with a 13-hit attack that included Willie Mays' 18th homer and the 523rd of his National League career.

The victory kept San Francisco's National League lead at four games over Pittsburgh which downed Houston 4-3. Jim Bunning pitched a two-hitter for Philadelphia as the Phillies nipped the New York Mets 1-0.

Cincinnati dropped Los Angeles

3-1 and Atlanta whipped Chicago 4-2 in other games.

In the American League, Boston whined the New York Yankees 5-3 despite tw o homers by

Mickey Mantle. Kansas City edged Baltimore 4-3, Minnesota ington dropped Chicago 4-1 and Detroit battered California 15-3.

THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

10 Minutes of Exposure Provides Needed Vitamin D

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What are the symptoms of vitamin D poisoning? Could liver oil cause hardening of the arteries?

A—Excessive amounts of vitamin D cause a loss of appetite, apathy, nausea, weakness, headache and a great thirst. The preferred treatment is disodium or dipotassium phosphate. Autopsy on some of those who have died of this disease showed severe hardening of the arteries and it is reasonable to believe that cause and effect relationship existed in these cases. The daily requirement of this vitamin is 400 units but you can get this with 10 minutes of exposure of a small area of your skin to direct sunlight daily.

Q—Is vitamin A good for the eyes? What vitamins benefit arthritis?

A—Vitamin A is necessary for good vision, especially at night. There is no vitamin or any other dietary component that will specifically help your arthritis.

Q—What is nicotinic acid good for? Is it a vitamin? Is it safe to take it for a long time?

A—Niacin or nicotinic acid is a part of the vitamin B complex. It is needed in the transformation of food into energy and in the prevention of pellagra. It has also been used in large doses to reduce the blood cholesterol level. It can be taken safely for an indefinite period.

Q—What was the Keeley cure for alcoholics? Was it effective?

A—The alcoholic voluntarily entered one of the Keeley Institutes (founded in 1879) where he was free to come and go at will. The stay was usually two or four weeks. Although moderate cigar and pipe smoking were allowed, cigarettes were forbidden. Coffee drinking was limited. Various drugs were used; exercise was encouraged and counseling was given.

Although many alcoholics underwent a remarkable rehabilitation at the institutes, there were relapses. The institutes did, however, wage a successful battle to promote the idea, now widely accepted, that alcoholism is a disease. The last of these institutes closed its doors in June of this year.

Ralston Just Might Go All the Way

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Dennis Ralston's service — one of the most unpredictable in world tennis — could take him into the Wimbledon final today for the first time.

The U.S. Davis Cup star from Bakersfield, Calif., faced South Africa's Cliff Drysdale in the quarter-finals.

Ralston won one and Drysdale the other.

The 19th semifinal match was between Manuel Santana of Spain, winner at Forest Hills last year, and Owen Davidson, unseeded Australian left-hander.

If Santana does what is expected of him and knocks out Davidson, the final will be the first for 11 years without an Australian. That hasn't happened since Tony Trabert of the United States defeated Kurt Nielsen of Sweden in 1955.

Page Five

Santana won a five-set classic against Australia's Ken Fletcher Tuesday on the center court. Fletcher, who had kept the wily Spaniard at full stretch with a fine display of hard hitting, finally cracked and Santana won 6-2, 3-6, 8-6, 4-6, 7-5.

Drysdale upset Australia's Tony Roche, the No. 2 seed, 5-7, 6-2, 6-2.

Australian hopes have slid to almost zero, the three top Aussie stars — defending champion Roy Emerson, three time runner-up Fred Stolle and now Roche — have been tumbled out.

Davidson, a unseeded left-hander whom nobody took seriously, found himself carrying the Australian flag alone.

The center court, greasy and slippery after intermittent rain throughout the last week, has proved the downfall of both Emerson and Britain's Bobby Wilson, who slipped and hurt his knee while playing Santana.

Charged in Robbery at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Edmond N. Lent, 40, was charged with armed robbery about an hour after a supermarket on the Texas side of this city was robbed of $1,000 and its manager abducted Tuesday evening.

Lent, who told officers he was wanted in six states, was arrested at Ashdown, about 19 miles north of here.

Sheriff Richard Birtcher said he pulled Lent from the car of Clyde Sampson after State Police had blocked the car.

Employees of the Kroger store said the gunman who held up the store threatened to kill Sampson if anyone tried to capture him.

Try DDD...It's Faster...

Now you have the world's fastest (and finest) long distance telephone service — and right at your fingertips.

We're talking about Direct Distance Dialing — one of the miracles of modern communications which Southwestern Bell — Arkansas has recently made possible for you — and we hope you're using it regularly.

DDD puts you closer to friends and loved ones everywhere... just a few quick spins of your telephone dial and you can visit with a loved one far away just as easily as you once called a friend down the street.

Here's how you place a DDD call:

Just dial "1" ... then the three digit "area code" for the distant city you want... then the distant telephone number... that's all. Suppose, for example, you wish to call LUTHER 5-6265 in St. Louis. The St. Louis area code is 314. So you'll dial "1," area code 314, then LU 5-6265. It's just that simple. Try it!
